

Could He Be (The Leper's Song)

© 2007 Eric Meyer

[Intro] D Bm7 A G (repeat)

[Verse 1] D Bm7 A G
Who is this? Who is this man who people claim has healed the lame
Em7 A
and loves the lowly ones?

D Bm7 A G
Who is this? Who is this man who others say has calmed the waves
Em7 A
and walked upon them once?

[Pre-Chorus] Em7 Bm A
I wonder if he is the one that Micah wrote about;
Em7 Bm A
And I wonder if he'd love this lonely heart that cries out loud.

[Chorus] D A
Could he be the living answer to the
G A G Em7 A
question of the cancer of my sin that burns like wildfire in my soul?
D A
Could he be the everlasting one who'll
G A G Em7 A
save me from my past and who I've been, my brokenness to be made whole?
D A G A
Could he be the one of whom Isaiah wrote?
D A G A
Could he be the one who's come to bring us hope?
D A Em7 A
Could he be Messiah?
C2 G Asus4 A
Could he be?

D Bm7 A G
[Verse 2] Who is this? Who is this man who stands here now and reaches out
Em7 A
to heal my leprosy?
D Bm7 A G
Who is this? Who is this man who has the sight to see past blighted
Em7 A
skin and set me free?

Bm7 G D A
[Bridge] Imprisoned by my sin-sick heart more than by my disease.
Bm7 G D A
God's healing touch is what I want, but forgiveness what I need.
Bm7 G
It is here. It is now.
D A
I don't understand but yet somehow
Bm7 G A
I know only he can make me clean!

E B
[Chorus] Could he be the living answer to the
A B A F#m7 B
question of the cancer of my sin that burns like wildfire in my soul?
E B
Could he be the everlasting one who'll
A B A F#m7 B
save me from my past and who I've been, my brokenness to be made whole?
E B A B
Could he be the one of whom Isaiah wrote?
E B A B
Could he be the one who's come to bring us hope?
E B F#m7 B
Could he be Messiah?
D2 A E
Could he be?
D2 A C D2 E
Could he be?
